

NOTES FOR REVIEWERS

We thank all the reviewers in assisting the editors in forming a decision regarding the evaluation of a manuscript. The following notes intend to help you prepare your comments in reviewing a submission for publication in Journal of the Chinese Chemical Society.

How Can I Start the Review?

1. When a reviewer receives a letter from the office regarding the invitation of the peer review, click the link on the letter to the review page, then use the assigned login and password to start the review.

2. After a reviewer logs in, a review list of the manuscript will appear. Scroll to the button, then press "Inquiry" button to choose the assigned manuscript and give your constructive comments to the author(s).

3. After finishing the review, please press "Update" button to finish the review.

The Evaluation of a Manuscript

Please be informed that the accuracy of content is very important in making your decision. Furthermore, the evaluation should also be made on the basis of English grammar and style, and the preparations of figures, tables, and references.

Can I Submit a Manuscript Using the Login and Password the Office Assigned?

Each reviewer has been automatically assigned a login and a password. The reviewer can use this login and password to review and submit a manuscript. There is no need to create or apply for a new membership before the submission.

If you have any questions regarding the review, please contact us at jccs@chem.sinica.edu.tw
